SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

An IB World School
since 2007

It is required that the EE supervisor:

- provides the student with advice and guidance in the skills of undertaking research.
- encourages and supports the student throughout the research and writing of the extended essay (EE).
- discusses the choice of topic with the student and, in particular, helps to formulate a well-focused research question.
- ensures that the chosen research question satisfies appropriate legal and ethical standards with regard to health and safety, confidentiality, human rights, animal welfare and environmental issues.
- is familiar with the regulations governing the EE and the assessment criteria, and gives copies of these to the student.
- reads and comments on the ONE draft only of the EE (but does NOT edit the draft).
- monitors the progress of the EE to offer guidance and to ensure that the essay is the student's own work; and reads the final version to confirm its authenticity.
- submits a predicted grade for the student's EE to the IB Diploma Programme coordinator.
- completes the supervisor's report (then submits completed forms to the IB Diploma Programme coordinator).
- provides an explanation in the report in cases where the number of hours spent with the student in discussing the EE is zero; in particular, it is necessary to describe how it has been possible to guarantee the authenticity of the EE in such circumstances.
- writes a report and presents it to the school's IB Diploma Programme coordinator if malpractice, such as plagiarism, is suspected in the Final Draft.

It is strongly recommended that the EE supervisor:

- reads recent EE reports for the subject.
- spends between three (3) and five (5) hours with each student, including the time spent on the concluding interview (viva voce).
- ensures that the chosen research question is appropriate for the subject.
- advises students on:
 - access to appropriate resources (such as people, a library, a laboratory, etc.);
 - techniques of information/evidence/data-gathering and analysis;
 - writing an Abstract;
 - and, documenting sources.
- conducts a short, (viva voce) with the student before completing the supervisor's report.

The student may work with or consult external sources, but it remains the responsibility of the supervisor within the school to complete all the requirements described above.
